MICHIGAN REDEEMED.

Republican Gains All Along the Line.

Barrows Elected by a Rousing Majority.

A Gain of at least Two Congressmen in Michigan.

The Republicans Carry Every Township in Van Buren County and Elect their Entire Legislative and County Ticket by a Big Vote.

At the present writing, the returns indicate the election of the entire republican state ticket by a plurality of from 5,000 to 10,000. It is probable that the "boy from Mendon's will be afforded ample opportunity to pursue his extensive law practice.

Mason & Drxon's line.

Now that the election is over once more, the people of the country can settle down to their usual avocations and quietly pursue the arts of peace. It is a fortunate thing indeed, that our elections occur but once in two years. As it is, the country hardly recovers from the excitement of one campaign, before it begins to be stirred up about the issues involved in the next one.

THE Detroit Tribune lately published an republicans in the senate. expose of fraudulent naturalization papers The evidence sustaining the fraud was so convincing and complete that the Free Press greenbackers etc. in italies: In the house: did not even attempt to disprove it, evidently thinking it was a little piece of "legitimate political activity."

Wg invite the attention of our readers to the article on this page entitled. "Who Voted Carpent for It?" The history of the submission amendment therein recorded is taken from the official records and is absolutely correct and reliable. It will be a good thing to preserve for future reference, and may enable you to refute some man's wild statement about the record of the republican party on the temperance question-

A smour time since, Bro. Cone of the Courier, extended a kind invitation to the editor of the Nontmentin, to go on a voyage of discovery with Hon, J. C. Bunnows, to the mysterious and wonderful Salt River region We acknowledge the receipt of the invitation but, owing to circumstances, are forced to decline. The following communication from Mendon, Mich., indicates that there has been a change in the management, and that a different crowd will ascend the stream. We give it just as received, viz:

Prohibition or Taxation.

The Postmeness is not, by any means, an state, that a judiciously framed and properly executed prohibitory law would be better for the welfare of the people of the state than our present tax law. But, on the other hand, it has no patience with the current idea among political prohibitionists, that taxation is worse than free rum.

There are certain acts that, in the language of the lawyers, are mala in se, crimes in and of themselves, and others that are mala prohibita, crimes because prohibited by the statute. To the latter class belongs the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks. It is a crime only when prohibited by statute. Among all nations and in all countries, unless prohibited by special statute, it is just as legal to buy and sell ardent spirits as it is to deal in any other kind of property.

Such being the case, it is by no means true that when the state imposes a fax upon the business, it thereby recognizes or legalizes it. Without the tax or some other law. it is recognized to its fullest extent, just as much as the seiling of groceries, or dry goods, or any other business is recognized. With the tax, it is placed, to a certain extent, under legal condemnation and, in some de-

These laws were enacted, not to encourage and legalize the traffic, but to curtail and discourage it, and to compel those who engage in it to bear at least a portion of the expense it entails upon the people. Our legislators recognized it as an evil and desired, by such statutes, to check and curtail such evil. The NORTHERNER trusts its position on we are told that the republican par this question may not be misunderstood nor violated its pledges, and has not kep misrepresented. It prefers prohibition, but with the people on this question! believes that our present statutes are much inconsistency go farther? to be preferred to no law at all, and that "free rum" would mean complete and full recognition of the business by the state, and responsibility on the part of the people for of the election in this county.
